Create examples of routines to narrow into focus to better help focus our application on the device.

Good job on making the backend visible through the flowcharts, etc

Storyboard outlining precisely what is in our video, the time of each scene and a more strict breakdown of the timeline and such

How we can demo this live in just a few minutes and make it interactive

The demo should show how everything works as a whole, not the individual components work.